

“THAT DARK PLACE”

JOB 14:1-22

In our country and even in our world, Covid-19 has quarantined many of us for several months. That is but a small sample size of what the devil does as he takes this distress with death to detain people for the duration of their lifetime in bondage (Hebrews 2:15). It becomes a lifelong death sentence for many in our world today. What are the signs of someone caught up in this fear?

THE DEEP DESPAIR OF DEATH

① _____ (14:1-6)

② _____ (14:7-12)

③ _____ (14:13-17)

④ _____ (14:18-22)

CONCLUSION

In a fallen, broken world, it's far too easy to stay consumed in your own issues and overlook those around and beside you who are struggling mightily. And yet, the second great commandment is the second of two great commandments for a reason: Love your neighbor as yourself. So when a sufferer enters your realm, consider these insights to guide you toward healthy communication with this unhealthy person.

1. Don't rush to _____ them.
2. Be slow to _____.
3. Watch for the _____ cues.
4. Take them at their _____.
5. Offer the medicine of _____.
6. Do not speak _____ words.
7. Evidence a heavy dose of _____.
8. Exercise the quality of _____.
